AMENDED GENERAL ORDER NO. 2

Continuing Suspension of Paper Filing Requirements in Pro Se Cases

Based on declared public health emergencies impacting Washington, D.C. and the National Capital Region, and ongoing efforts to mitigate community transmission and the impact of COVID-19, the United States Court of Federal Claims continues to take steps to limit the number of court personnel who are required to be available to process filings submitted through the U.S. Postal Service, by messenger, or in the court's night box. Providing pro se litigants with the ability to submit and be served with filings electronically will reduce the number of court staff required to process paper filings, which will help reduce the risk to the health and safety of both court staff and the public conducting business with the court.

Consistent with this court's General Order issued on March 18, 2020, suspending paper filing requirements in pro se cases, and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2071(e),

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

- (1) Judges, special masters, the Clerk of Court, and counsel of record for the United States may file electronically in pro se cases using the court's Case Management/Electronic Case Files (CM/ECF) system. A pro se litigant may be served either through the U.S. Postal Service or by electronic means to which the litigant has consented in writing. Counsel shall attach to each filing a certificate of service pursuant to Rule 5.3 of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims ("RCFC").

(2) With no public access to the Clerk's Office at this time, pro se litigants with active cases before the court shall, absent extraordinary circumstances, submit all case filings via e-mail to

ProSe_case_filings@cfc.uscourts.gov.¹

- a. All documents submitted by e-mail must be attached in Portable Document Format (PDF), and the e-mail subject line should include the case name and docket number for which the submission is intended.
- b. Each e-mail submission should be limited to a document that is clearly identified as a filing pursuant to a court rule or in response to a court order.
- c. Only the contents of the attached PDF will be considered part of the submission and processed by the Clerk's Office; any content in the body of the e-mail will not be processed by the Clerk's Office or considered for inclusion in the case record.
- d. To satisfy the signature requirements of RCFC 11, e-mailed submissions may include an electronic signature (s/[name of party]). See Appendix E, RCFC, ¶ 19(a).
- e. Service pursuant to RCFC 5(b) shall be accomplished on the date the email message is transmitted to both the court and opposing counsel. Pursuant to RCFC 5.3(b), a certificate of service shall be attached to each filing.

- f. Pro se litigants may not file documents via e-mail on behalf of any other person.
- (3) All case initiating documents (e.g., complaints, petitions, notices of appeal), however, should be submitted, along with either the required filing fee or an application to proceed in forma pauperis, either through the U.S. Postal Service, or by deposit in the court's night box located at the garage entrance on H Street N.W., between 15th Street and Madison Place.
 - (4) The 2-copies requirement prescribed in RCFC 5.5(d)(1) and (2) and Vaccine Rules 2(b)(1) and 17(d) is hereby suspended; pro se litigants need only file an original document. If a document, however, including exhibits and attachments, exceeds 50 pages, the pro litigant must supply a courtesy copy of the document in paper form that meets the requirements of RCFC 5.5(c).
 - (5) Pro se litigants with active cases before the court may, if feasible, receive instant notification by e-mail of all electronic filings.
 - a. To receive instant notification of filings by e-mail, a pro se litigant must file the attached E-Notification Consent Form in each of his or her active cases before the court.
 - b. By filing an E-Notification Consent Form, the pro se litigant:

- i. consents to receiving notice by e-mail of all electronic filings in the named case, pursuant to RCFC 5(b), via the court's electronic filing system;
- ii. waives service and notice of these filings by first class mail; and
- iii. understands that a Public Access to Court Electronic Records ("PACER") account may be required to view electronic filings.²

(6) Case-by-case exceptions to these directives may be ordered at the discretion of the assigned judge or special master after consultation with the parties.

(7) The Clerk of Court is directed to provide public notice of this General Order and to file a copy of this General Order in each newly filed pro se case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
